The Ties of a Sister of Mercy

To kneel and worship, deep and pure,
To care the Orphan, feed the Poor,
To speed on angels' wings below,
And hover 'round the couch of woe,
The wayward sinner to reclaim,
God's love and mercy to proclaim,
To teach, to labor, and to pray,
To point to heaven, and to lead the way.

Dedication

WE, the members of the class of 1956, dedicate our Senior book to the Sisters of Mercy. This year brings with it the centennial of the coming of the Religious Sisters of Mercy to St. Louis.

At the invitation of Archbishop Peter R. Kenrick, the daughters of Mother Mary Catherine McAuley began their works in this Archdiocese, on the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 1856.

Our dedication is in reality a recognition of the untiring efforts and fruitful labors of this Community. May the Sisters of Mercy accept this as a tribute from the many who have been guided and inspired to a better life by them.

A Blessing Indeed!

O, God, by whose word all things are sanctified, pour forth Thy blessing upon this ring and grant that whosoever shall use it with thanksgiving, according to Thy law and will, may receive from Thee, through the invocation of Thy Holy Name, health of body and peace of soul. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Senior Play

"Murder in a Nunnery"...

under the direction of Reverend Raymond F. Rustige was this year's senior play. Having a combination of both comedy and drama, the presentation has for its setting a convent school in England and revolves around the stabbing of the Italian Baroness Sliema.

May Day

It is our privilege and act of love to our Blessed Mother to crown her Queen of May. The ceremony consists of prayers, rosary, and hymns in honor of Mary. The devotion concludes with the recitation of an Act of Consecration to our Blessed Lady.

THE SPECIAL COURT

Miss Margaret Nestor, our May Queen, and her escort, Mr. Donald Bicunas.

Football Prom

The football season was officially brought to a close on November 23, 1955, as Queen Sue Cummings and King Jim Beckmann reigned over the festive occasion. Special maids, five young ladies of this year's graduating class, were escorted by senior members of the varsity football team.

Classes

"Put your whole confidence in God, He will never see you want for means to do His work."

Sacred Heart Club

Moderator: Sister Mary Emmanuel, R.S.M.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart was spread through the activities of three committees: Enthronement, Badge, and First Friday. This year the girls donated their dues to Reverend Eugene P. Murphy, S.J., Director of the Sacred Heart Program, for the promotion of his apostolic work.

Legion of Mary

Praesidium of Our Lady of the Pillar

Moderator: Sister Mary Anthony, R.S.M.

The object of the Legion of Mary is self-sanctification and a participation in the apostolate of the Church. Active members work for the Sacred Heart Program, visit orphanages, assist at the Chancery Office, and teach catechism to Catholic children attending public schools. Auxiliary members pray for the success of the works of the active members.

Young Christian Students

Chaplains:

Reverend David A. Ratermann

Reverend John N. Wurm

In its second year at Mercy, the Y.C.S., a religious organization has grown both in size and importance. Members carry out their theme, "Together for Christ," by encouraging fellow students to keep Christ in their daily lives.
